pure love

Dog ownership can be a life-changing experience. Some of us meet our first furry friend when we're still too young to crawl. Others enjoy the constant companionship of a loyal friend well after their own kids have all grown up.

The love of a dog is a powerful, unconditional bond that transcends words. Except for maybe one: Pure.

pure connection

The CKC and You

Quite simply, it's our love of dogs that unites us. Whether you are looking to get a puppy or are already a proud new puppy owner, a breeder of champion dogs or a competitor in our events, the CKC welcomes you. There is a place for you as a member, and a part you can play in our future.

About Us

We started out as a small group of purebred dog supporters in 1888 and are now Canada's leading authority on purebred dogs, with close to 20,000 members.

The CKC is a national member-based, non-profit organization that provides registry services for 175 officially recognized breeds of purebred dogs, and approves almost 3,000 dog shows, trials and tests across Canada. We also develop the Rules and Regulations for 18 competitive events and sanction more than 600 dog clubs nationally.

We have a strong tradition of supporting purebreds, responsible owners and reputable breeders and work hard to promote the many benefits that purebred dogs bring to our daily lives.

What We Do

We, at the CKC, are very involved in many areas that affect our canine friends including:

- Responsible dog ownership
- Health and welfare
- Breed-specific legislation
- Canine safety
- Dangerous dog legislation

Finding Your New Best Friend

So you've decided you'd like a purebred dog, but how do you pick the right breed? Not to worry — we can help you select the breed that is best suited to your needs and lifestyle. The Puppy List (thepuppylist.ca) is a wonderful search and research tool built right into the CKC website. It allows you to find your ideal companion by identifying key qualities for each of our 175 breeds. It connects you with local CKC-member breeders, and provides litter details, contact information and more.

When you select a puppy from a CKC-member breeder, you are buying from a breeder who, as a CKC member, is required to adhere to standards and requirements relating to the proper breeding, maintenance and selling of their puppies outlined in the CKC Code of Ethics and Code of Practice for CKC Member Breeders. Along with your puppy, you will receive (within six months) a CKC Certificate of Registration guaranteeing the pedigree of your new best friend.

Ways for You to Get Involved

Why not discover what your new best friend can do through any of the numerous CKC-approved dog activities we have available?

The CKC takes great pleasure in taking a role in all kinds of competitive canine events such as Conformation Shows, Obedience Trials, Draft Dog Tests and the exciting sport of Agility. As the largest governing body for dog shows and trials in Canada, we qualify judges and sanction the rules and regulations for events across the country.

Be sure to sign your dog up for Canine Good Neighbour (CGN) testing, which will reward your exemplary furry friend with an Official CGN Certificate. This certificate demonstrates that your dog can be counted on to present good manners at home, in public and in the presence of other dogs.

Becoming a Member

We are able to do the work we do thanks to the loyalty and commitment of our members. Your membership will help us:

- Educate prospective dog owners on the responsibilities of caring for a new puppy
- Promote and preserve the benefits that dogs bring to our society
- Lobby for the rightful and appropriate place dogs have in our communities
- Provide public programs for canine safety
- Increase breeder education
- Operate CANADACHIP, our 24-hour recovery service
